

The Pete Dye Team Challenge

The Gasparilla Inn & Club will once again host the Pete Dye Team Challenge, a professional/amateur golf tournament on select dates throughout the 2014-2015 seasons. Competing teams will be comprised of one PGA Club Professional and three amateurs from the respective Club or Resort. All play will be on The Gasparilla Golf Club's magnificent Pete Dye-designed course.

The Pete Dye Team Challenge will consist of two amateur divisions and one professional division:

1. The Pete Dye Division will be for Pete Dye Clubs/Resorts only.
2. The Gasparilla Division will be for all other non-Pete Dye Clubs/Resorts.
3. The Club/Resort Professional Division.

Prizes:

The low team net score for the season in each division will receive a prize of a two-night stay for four rooms, breakfast and dinner daily, complimentary golf and cart during their stay, as well as daily service charge and taxes included. The Professional Division will also receive a cash prize for the first and second place individuals.

Tournament Format & Rules:

- All teams must be overnight guests of The Gasparilla Inn & Club.
- The team's professional, acting as captain, must state the intention to play a tournament round prior to play.
- Only one tournament round may be played during a visit. If a professional brings more than three members, he/she may turn in a second card including the players not in his group. Teams or captains may visit The Inn and enter the tournament more than once during a season.
- Format: Best two balls of four.
- Professionals will play at scratch. Amateurs will receive 90% of the adjusted course handicap.
- Male amateurs will play from the blue/white tees and female amateurs will play from the red tees. Male pros 49 and under will play from the gold tees and male pros 50+ will play from the blue tees. All female pros will play from the white tees.
